A creation by Cirque La Compagnie
One car, 5.5 men... They don’t have much in common, but there is at least one particularity that unites them: their father. The 5 brothers find themselves together on the road on their way back from their father’s cremation. The latter is also present in the car: he travels in an urn... And it’s an accident! Relax in front of this tragi-comic huis clos with these five exceptional circus artists, who offer a dynamic, joyful and extremely inventive show.

In this collection that honors contemporary circus in all its forms, artists from all disciplines express themselves through inventive, immersive and cinematic works with energy, poetry and humor. Juggling, acrobatics, acrobatics, Chronocircus captures the freedom that characterizes this new multidisciplinary scene in perpetual evolution.

JOSIANES
OR THE ART OF RESISTANCE

Josianes or the Art of Resistance is a film that combines circus, dance, and vertical dance. Against a backdrop of offbeat humor, mixing acrobatics, wild choreography, and polyphonic singing, the four women of the JOSIANES company recount their incredible adventures and explore the notion of female resistance. Uninhibited, authentic, and engaging, funny but sprinkled with vulnerability, the show is an ode to joie de vivre, to multiple forms of femininity, and a beautiful tribute to our grandmothers!

FAILED VERTIGO

On a busy street in an anonymous megacity, a musician plays the bass saxophone. Amidst the rushing crowd, a tired woman carrying a heavy travel bag stops to listen to his music. She puts down her burden and finds herself mysteriously propelled into the air. Surprise mingles with panic as passersby, transfixed by this unexplained phenomenon, rush to catch her. Determined to prevent the woman from flying away, they mobilize all their strength to bring her back down to earth and anchor her firmly to the ground. A battle against the force of gravity ensues, where the extraordinary meets reality, creating a scene that is as captivating as it is moving.

VELOCIRAPTOR

The acrobatic bicycle collective La Bande à Tyrex takes over the Vichy Opera for a crazy and twirling creation!
Through this short film which mixes the acrobatic work of the Bande à Tyrex, music and cinema, the collective presents its unbridled and explosive universe. The ten circus artists on ten bicycles highlight the grandiose and precious architecture of the Vichy Opera House with tenderness.

LOCKDOWN

Austrian-born, multi-talented artist Michael Zandl began juggling at a very young age. Fascinated by physical abilities, he pursued his dream and developed a true passion for the circus. From natural sciences to circus arts, he studied at a prestigious school in Rotterdam. With an already rich career, Michael Zandl collaborates with Roberto Magro (La Central del Circ) and Ed Wubbe (Scapino-Ballet Rotterdam). Magic, humor and hats in this psycho-thriller that opens the new Chronocircus collection.

LOST PARADISE

Between fiction and reality, the artists' collective Cirque Pardi! takes up the codes of the traditional circus and offers us a whirlwind of acrobatic acts. Fixed trapeze, swinging trapeze, dance, acrobatic bicycle, tightrope walking, acrobatic lifts, clowning and juggling are all mixed together in this whimsical cabaret.

FLOWERS BLOOM IN THE SHADE

Through more or less dangerous acrobatic installations, the character puts himself in danger and reflects on the beauty and fragility of the world. Inspired by "Take Care of Yourself", author and director Marc Oosterhoff places emotions at the heart of his work.

At Berlin’s Funkhaus, pianist Alexandre Kantorow and soprano Regula Mühlemann shine in a program featuring Brahms’s Piano Concerto No. 2 and Mahler’s Symphony No. 4, conducted by Teodor Currentzis and performed by the Utopia Orchestra! A delightfully contrasting program awaits you: the pianist’s virtuosity illuminates the exuberant concerto, followed by the symphony’s idyllic, nostalgic, yet subtly macabre landscape.

It is the European Utopia Orchestra, created by Teodor Currentzis, which was founded precisely to free itself from any Russian funding. Utopia is an orchestra and choir that brings together the finest musicians from around the world. Following an idealistic approach aimed at reaching the inner essence of music, the ensemble is structurally and financially independent from any other institution.

Pianist Alexandre Tharaud and dancer Chun Wing Lam celebrate Bach's music in an old foundry where several of Rodin's masterpieces were created.There, amid a garden of ghostly sculptures or beside an abandoned swimming pool, the pianist and dancer from the Paris Opera give full expression to the emotional power of Bach's music. The echoes are all the more moving because it was in this timeless place that many of Auguste Rodin's bronze statues were created.

We all know Marlon Brando for his hit films or his two Oscars. But his relationship with French Polynesia, where the actor lived for nearly 30 years, remains largely unexplored. By living in Tahiti, Brando thought to quell his anxieties and his depravity...but Polynesia with its exquisite landscapes, its gentle way of life and its singular culture were, in reality, only a mirage, an illusion of the idealized peaceful existence that the star ultimately never managed to achieve.

What happens when a young, unknown actress becomes the first female action hero and an international movie star?

With her appearance in ALIEN in 1979, Sigourney Weaver made cinema history: for the first time a woman had played the lead role in an action movie. 45 years later, with blockbusters such as GHOSTBUSTERS and AVATAR under her belt, she remains an adored icon, with an incomparable career that has cemented the path of emancipation for female roles.

American, William Christie is one of the great ambassadors of French culture and the French way of "feeling art", as he likes to say. His career as a harpsichordist, conductor, musicologist and teacher remains closely linked to France. It is at the origin of a remarkable musical adventure: his rediscovery of baroque music. This film seeks to give voice to one man's unique point of view and to lift the veil on the path of this enormous talent, who is as lucid and charming as he is inaccessible.

Pianist Alexandre Tharaud and dancer Chun Wing Lam celebrate Bach's music in an old foundry where several of Rodin's masterpieces were created.There, amid a garden of ghostly sculptures or beside an abandoned swimming pool, the pianist and dancer from the Paris Opera give full expression to the emotional power of Bach's music. The echoes are all the more moving because it was in this timeless place that many of Auguste Rodin's bronze statues were created.
